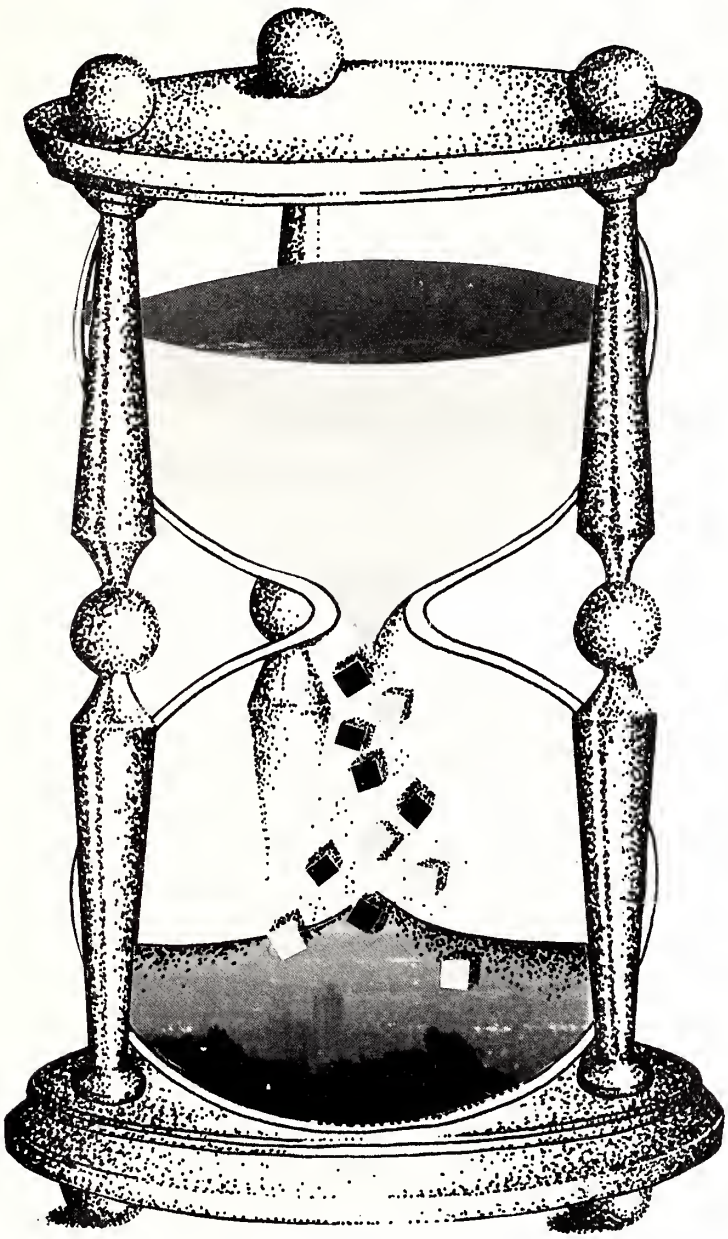
A TIME 1980

Mount St. Mary's presents



A Time...1980

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven:
a time to be born, and a time to die;
a time to plant, and a time to pluck up what is planted;
a time to kill, and a time to heal;
a time to break down, and a time to build up;
a time to weep, and a time to laugh;
a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together;
a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, and a time to lose;
a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
a time to reap, and a time to sew;
a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
a time to love, and a time to hate;
a time for war, and a time for peace.

Changing Face of Time

It is a child of innocence full of love undirected and acceptance for the world as a magnificent toy to enjoy.
It is a young woman aware of the many paths which she alone must chose to venture.
It is a mature woman who has chosen her path and made an indention in life's sphere.
It is an elderly woman who can look back at the magnificent toy, the course she chose from many, and the wonderful things she has given and received.
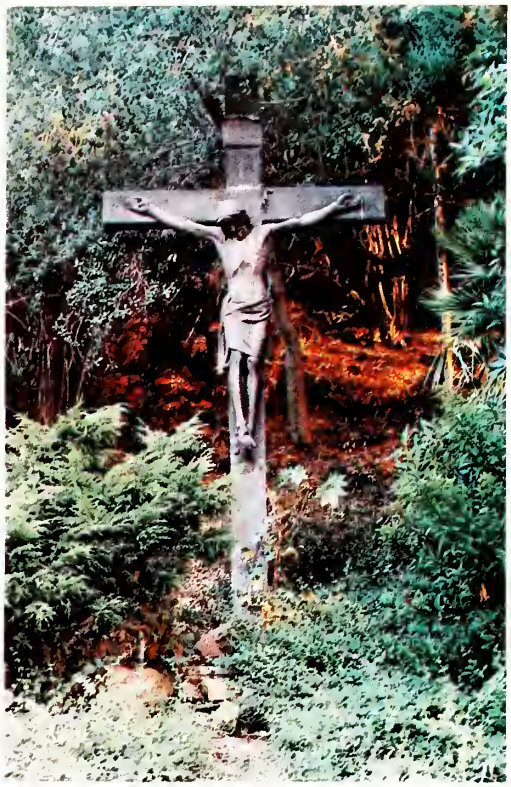
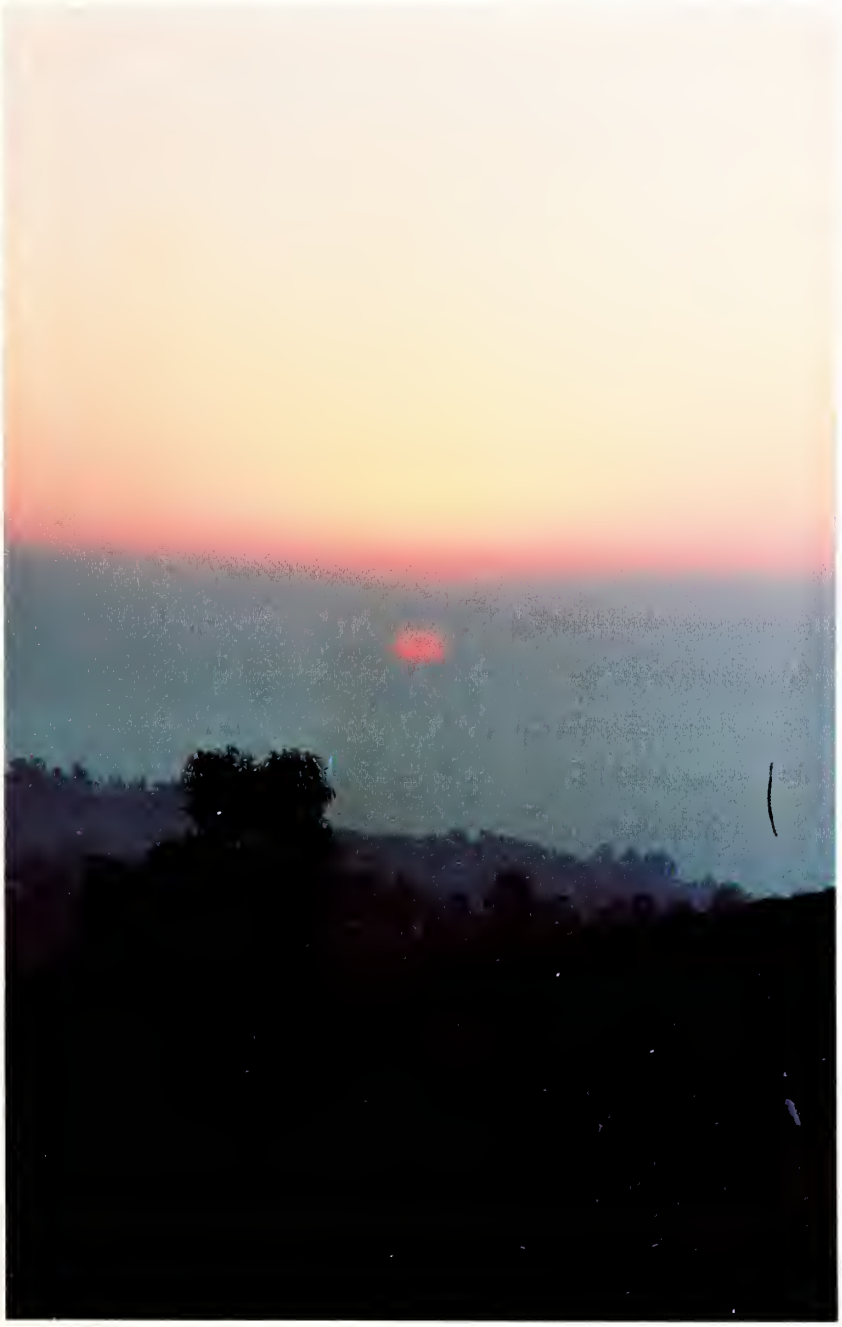
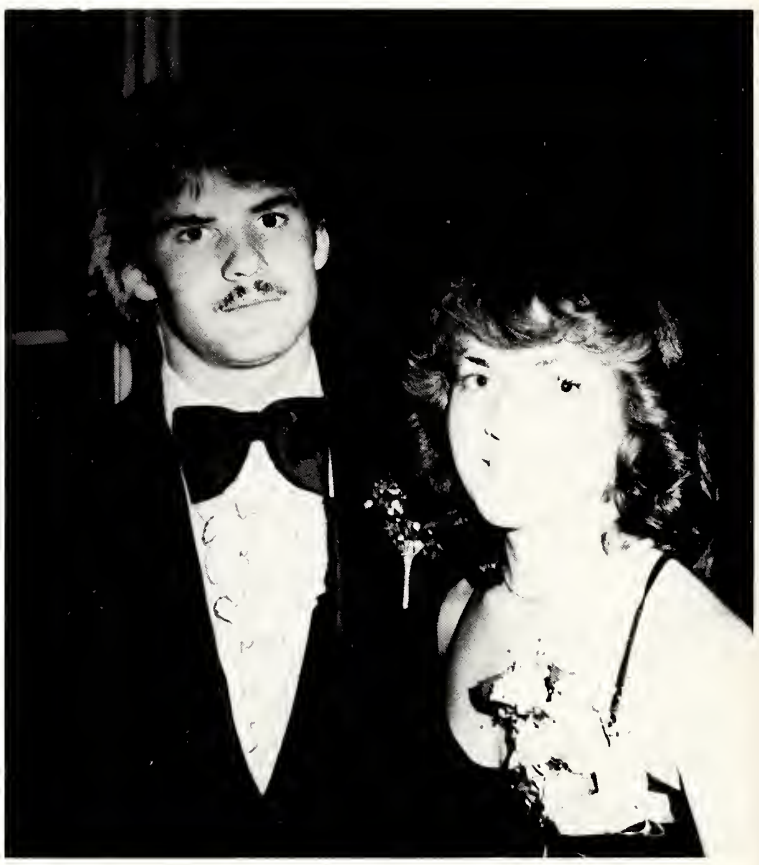
And she herself knows that her life
has been lived well and full.

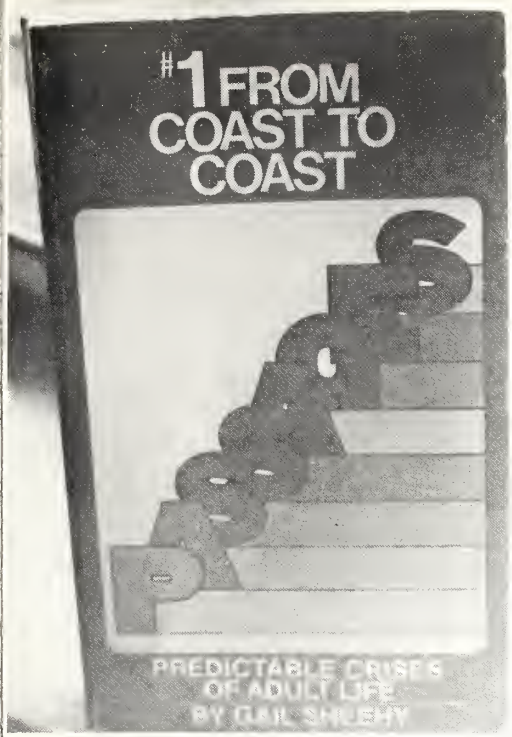
Karen Wanamaker





Memories of Time





As I look at my watch,
and see the time tick by,
or I look at a candlestick,
and see the wax melt away,
As I look at the twilight diminish,
the moon fades out,
or I look at each day,
and see time fade away.
As I look at all these things,
which are part of life,
time slips by,
precious time slips away.
But these all leave in their place,
the memories of time.

President

"There is a season for everything, a time for every occupation under heaven . . . . . ."

The time we have in each part of our life seems to match the texture of the season — the long, sunny afternoons of childhood — the rush of time and task-filled adulthood — and the reaches of time to savor it all in old age.

But surely it must be true that the quality, the richness of each day rises out of the decisions and choices and the use of time we have had in all our earlier days.

One's years of college study are a particularly important and formative time in a human life — a time that helps one live fully and see the significance of all the other seasons of our life.

"I have learned that success is to be measured not so much by position that one has reached in life as by obstacles which he has overcome while trying to succeed."

Booker T. Washington

"You cannot bring about prosperity by discouraging thrift. You cannot strengthen the weak by weakening the strong. You cannot help the wage earner by pulling down the wage payer. You cannot further the brotherhood of man by encouraging class hatred. You cannot keep out of trouble by spending more than you earn. You cannot build character and courage by taking away man's initiative and independence. You cannot help men permanently by doing for them what they could and should do for themselves."

Abraham Lincoln

"Labor was prior to capital, but property is the fruit of labor. Property is desirable and is a positive good to the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise."

"Let not him who is houseless pull down the house of another; but let him work diligently and build one for himself, thus by example insuring that his own shall be kept safe from violence when built."

We're bringing the Western world closer together.

Western Airlines, through its route structure and low airfares, brings Los Angeles travelers closer to cities all over the U.S., Canada and Mexico.

Our comfortable planes, attentive personnel and special inflight services make all travel—business and pleasure—more enjoyable.

What's more, small packages and large cargo receive that same concern from our Cargo Coddlers.SM

We're out to be the best in the sky. So you'll continue to think of Western as "the only way to fly."
